

Rajiv Gandhi Super Speciality Hospital

(An autonomous institute under GNCTD)

Tahirpur Delhi-110093

Date: 21.05.2020

In response to Advertisement No 1/2020, (Vacancy Notice) it is observed that few applicants had submitted their application at an email address other than the specified email address for that particular post in the said advertisement or had only submitted their resume without filling the application form of the hospital and undertaking.

In view of which, applications of such candidate shall not be considered by RGSSH.

Therefore, all applicants are advised to re- confirm through their sent box that they have submitted their applications in the application form along with undertaking at the specified email address for the said post to which they intend to apply before close of last date of applications.

In all such cases, applicants are once again advised to re-submit their applications in application form of hospital along with under taking at the specified email address only as mentioned against each post before close of last date of application.

Later, NO request shall be considered, to accept the applications sent on other email address or through any other mode and all such application forms shall be rejected without any further communication with the applicant.

Sd/-
Director
RGSSH